The Glove Story==$ -AT-

The growth of our Glove business gives us all the proof we need that our care for quality is appreciated. But who does want cheap Gloves, when reliable Gloves don't cost any more?

The major part of our stock is imported. Somehow or other they have the knack of fitting—the interpretation of fashion down a little finer on the other side. Of course we have to tie to the bestbecause the best is what we promise you. Here they are -in all the variety of popular shades and finishing fads -and the prices are plainly printed. Isn't it confidence inspiring to have the figures as well as the facts frankly told of? We don't fear any competition - for to sell cheaper the qualities must be cheaper.

Vandervoort's work, Secretary Edgerton this morning gave to the newspapers something of the general's political history. "I notice," said Mr. Edgerton, "that Vandervoort seems to take an active part in the matter of valoa of electors, and that he was conspicuous at Indianapolis yesterday. He was in Texas after the national convention, and it is probable that the result there can be traced to be in the can be in the ca there can be traced to his interference. He seemingly had a hand in calling the extra conventions of the populists in Kansas and in Illinois.

Sas and in Illinois, "Vandervoort is not a populist, but holds a republican office in the city of Omaha. He has worked for years for Senator Thurston, and is evidently working with him yet. He has been repudlated by the populists in Nebraska, and not one of curparty in that state has any confidence in him. I speak of him in this matter because he seems to be trying to create trouble and discord and to prevent the election of discord and to prevent the election of Bryan. As a Nebraska populist who knows this man I warn all populists and silver men of the country against him."

The People's Party Mass Meeting. Mr. E. M. Blake, chairman of the executive committee of the people's party, has issued the following call for a mass meet-

"A mass meeting of the people's party of the District of Columbia will be held Saturday, September 26, at Mechanics' Hall, 41/2 and Pennsylvania avenue, at 7.30 p.m. Dr. Alex. Kent, Mr. J. M. Devine of Nebraska and others have accepted invitations to address the meeting.

"All in sympathy with the efforts now being made to bring about a fusion of all parties in favor of financial independence at d freedom from foreign domination, and who believe the American people capable of establishing a monetary system of their own, are cordially invited to attend."

Rev. Mr. Kent to Stump for Silver. The populist managers are arranging for Rev. Alex. Kent to make a political speech in this city before he leaves on the campaign assignments which have been given hlm. It is probable that Mr. Kent will speak on Saturday night week, and that

Mechanics' Hall will be selected. Mr. Kent will take the stump for the silver cause about the 1st of October. He will be in Maryland most of the time. He is regarded as a very effective speaker. He is expected to make several speeches in Baltimore, especially to the working men of that

In Memoriam.

JONES. In loving remembrance of my dear sen,
HARRY E. JONES, who died one year ago today. September 18, 1835.
I will go to his grave, where his spirit has fled;
Ecocath the green sod he is laid with the dead;
Where the heart that I loved is turning to clay,
In Mt. Olivet's cold dews he is passing away.

Gope, but not forgotten.

BY HIS LOVING MAMA.
